The Honorable George Bush
Director
Central Intelligence
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Mr. Bush:

Just one year ago this week our Nation initiated the largest refugee evacuation, reception and resettlement program in our history. Through the dedicated support of personnel and resources from fifteen Federal Departments and Agencies, the President's Interagency Task Force for Indochina Refugees was able to successfully complete its humanitarian mission of resettling 140,000 refugees by last December.

Please accept my appreciation and gratitude for the significant staff support the Intelligence Community contributed toward this interagency endeavor. As an expression of gratitude to each of the talented and hard-working personnel who made the mission a success, the Task Force printed Certificates of Appreciation (a sample of which is enclosed) which can be co-signed by you and presented to personnel in your Agency who served with the program.

I have discussed these Certificates with [redacted] the Intelligence Community's Senior Representative to the Task Force, who recently received a supply for distribution to appropriate staff members. He will be able to provide further assistance and information with regard to the Certificates and suggestions on additional recognition for employees within your agency whose service was especially meritorious. 25X1A

Once again, please accept my thanks for the remarkable support of your Agency on behalf of the refugee resettlement program.

Sincerely,

Julia V. Taft
Director
